Welcome to The Fast of Supernatural Success!

by Bishop C. Shawn Tyson, Senior Pastor

Shalom and salutations of love, peace and joy to the household of faith!

As the scripture declares in Acts 26:22, Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day. Beyond all shadow of a doubt, it was “THE HELP OF GOD” that brought us through the year 2020. As the songwriter prophetically said, millions didn’t make it, but you and I are one of the ones who did. For this we give God great praise.

Having been preserved by the grace of God through the multitudinous tests and trials of the year 2020, there must be a prolific reason why God has chosen YOU to be among his elect representatives of the kingdom of God to a world in chaos. I believe that in this season God is going to make a notable distinction between those he calls his own and those who choose to attempt to do life without Christ. This distinction will not absolve the kingdom citizen from the various test and trials, or even the many afflictions that are part of the pilgrim’s sojourn in this strange land. But it will affirm for the world to see as the Apostle Paul said, “If God be for us who can be against us”. Rom 8:31

The Spirit of God has declared 2021 to be the year of Supernatural Success for those who will put their faith in God and put their faith to work. Be advised that as we embark upon this journey called 2021, that the power of the Supernatural at work does not absolve the believer of his or her work. The saints of God must work and worship in harmony, synergy and in partnership with the plans of God for the Supernatural to be manifest in the life of the believer.

It is this process we will now undertake over the course of the next 21 days culminating in the sacred and supernatural experience of Holy Communion. I want to compel you to take this journey with God, for he desires to reveal unto you great and mighty things, which thou knowest not. Jer 33:3

It is with great anticipation of the appearance of JESUS that I welcome you to the year and the fast of “Supernatural Success”. I’ll meet you in the winner’s circle.

Carpe Diem,

Bishop C. Shawn Tyson
Senior Pastor, CCA

Before, During, and Breaking the Fast

Planning Your Fast

"Then Joshua said to the people, ‘Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the Lord will do wonders among you.’" Joshua 3:5

Pray—Spend time reading the Bible before the fast. Ask the Holy Spirit for guidance in your prayers. Write down your faith goals and specific prayer requests for your family, friends, church, and nation.

Commit—Pray about the kind of fast you will undertake and commit to it ahead of time. Ask God for grace to help you follow through with your decisions.

Act—Start eating smaller portions a few days before the fast. Avoid food high in sugar and fat. Plan to limit physical and social activities for the week of the fast. Ask someone to be your prayer partner throughout the fast.

While Fasting

[Jesus] answered, ‘It is written, ‘Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.’" Matthew 4:4

Focus—Set aside time to work through the devotionals. Be ready to respond to God's Word and the leading of the Holy Spirit.

Pray—Join at least one prayer meeting in your local church. Intercede for your family, church, pastors, nation, campuses, and missions throughout the week.

Replenish—During mealtime, read the Bible and pray instead. Drink plenty of water and rest as much as you can. Be ready for temporary bouts of physical weakness and mental annoyances like impatience and irritability.

Breaking the Fast

And this is the confidence that we have toward him, that if we ask anything according to his will he hears us. And if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have the requests that we have asked of him. 1 John 5:14–15

Eat—Reintroduce solid food gradually. Your body will need time to adjust to a normal diet. Start with fruits, juices, and salad, then add more vegetables. Eat small portions throughout the day.

Pray—Don't stop praying! Trust God's faithfulness and timing. Carry your newfound passion for God throughout the year. Be in faith for God to answer your prayers.

I want to encourage you to avail yourself to God in this special time of consecration. Make a special effort to press your way into the presence of God each day thru prayer and teaching.

Spiritual Consultation

The Apostolic lifestyle of holiness embodies the practice of confession which is clearly outlined in both the Old & New Testaments. Consider the following scriptures:

“And it shall be, when he shall be guilty in one of these things, that he shall confess that he hath sinned in that thing:” (Leviticus 5:5)

“If we confess our sins he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.” (I John 1:9)

You are urged to utilize this personal time of reflection as a time to cleanse your spirit form any weight and sin which does so easily beset (Hebrews 12:1). Below you will find the listing of Pastors who may receive your confessions. We do ask that you consider our ministerial staff by scheduling a time early in the week for prayer via email at ccaindy1@gmail.com or by phone at (317) 255-8761.

DAY 8: MONDAY – “TAKE SMART RISKS”

Scripture for Meditation: Luke 14:28

Prayer:

1. May we see and understand success as God sees it and realize that God does not measure or gauge success by man's standards! May we see and know that it is a meeting or achieving a desired God-originated outcome.
2. May we read, study, and apply God's Word to our lives.
3. In God, success is only possible by strict adherence to His Word.
4. May we find ourselves daily doing the will of God because God defines success as fulfilling His will and purposes in our lives. Obedience to God ensures our godly success.
5. May we always put Jesus first and never lose sight of our life's mission. Help us not to be deterred by distractions and lose sight of God!
6. May we forgive anyone who wrongs you and give the people who let you down the same grace God gave you (Colossians 3:13). May our character and integrity, our faith and discipline, our honesty, loyalty and love lead us to success.

DAY 9: TUESDAY – “MAXIMIZE THE BENEFITS OF MENTORSHIP”

Scripture for Meditation: Proverbs 27:17

Prayer:

1. May we always know that God has a plan: "For I know the Plans I have for you, declares the Lord, 'Plans to Prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."
2. May we know that regardless of our current situation, He will prosper us, as He promised, and give us hope.
3. May we remain steadfast when circumstances come and seek to make us doubt God's promises. May we declare that God is not a man that He should lie.
4. May we document those things He speaks to us through His Word and in prayer and be a doer of His words.
5. Teach us Lord, how to ask of You a detailed design for our now and our future; then teach me the proper and timely execution of that plan.

DAY 10: WEDNESDAY – “KNOW WHEN TO SAY NO”

Scripture for Meditation: Matthew 5:37

Prayer:

1. May we learn to set definite boundaries. A boundary is the line between what is OK and what is not OK. Teach us how to set physical, emotional, and mental boundaries.
2. May we always be careful not to commit to do something when we are fully aware it will not be possible to fulfill that commitment. It is scripturally correct to keep the vows we make to God and others.
3. May we recognize and understand that if we say “Yes” we must fully intend to make it good. It is better to say “No” than to contrive a way to avoid accountability. This is paramount to lying.
4. May we always give ourselves permission to stay within our self-defined limits.
5. May we find ourselves always being honest with ourselves first and with others.

DAY 11: THURSDAY – “KNOW THYSELF”

Scripture for Meditation: 2 Corinthians 13:5

Prayer:

1. May we daily self examine in light of the Scriptures in order to keep us humble and honest.
2. May we not be defined by our culture, our societal labels, or our present economic status. Teach us to walk in Your image and after Your likeness.
3. May we identify our weaknesses and our strengths in the natural and in the spiritual and find ways to cause them to work in our favor. May we not remain wounded by life's events because "hurting people hurt people."
4. Teach us how to "be still" and realize " who" we really are! Let us not run from "quiet times". May we find our passion and mission in life in stillness.
5. May we see ourselves as God sees us and seek to become that person. Cause us not to live in the opinion or verdict of other but rather cause us to see and know our "worth" and walk therein.

DAY 12: FRIDAY – “CHOOSE YOUR FRIENDS WISELY”

Scripture for Meditation: Proverbs 12:26

Prayer:

1. The Bible says, "A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for a time of adversity." "My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends."
2. Teach me Lord how to:
 - a. Choose friends with like Godly values.
 - b. Choose friends with common goals.
 - c. Choose friends who can bring balance in areas where I am weaker.
 - d. Choose friends that stretch, motivate, and encourage me.
 - e. Choose friends that are worthy of my trust.
 - f. Choose friends that have a thirst for knowledge and a desire to grow.
3. May I always remember that “Corrupt communication breeds bad manners.” May I always be able to distinguish between true friends, acquaintances, and hanger on-ers.
4. May I never act outside of character or beliefs to retain a friendship.
5. May there always be a respect for set boundaries.
6. May I always acknowledge that Jesus is my Friend, for Proverbs 18:24 says, A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

DAY 13: SATURDAY – “THE REALITY OF THE SUPERNATURAL”

Scripture for Meditation: Isaiah 40:28

Prayer:

1. May I learn to walk daily in the reality of the supernatural as a vessel for miracles, signs, and wonders.
2. May I have a deeper intimacy with You God and experience the reality of the supernatural. I welcome the encounter of knowing You as a bigger God than I have ever known before!
3. May I develop the mindset of the Kingdom of God. Guide me as I explore the realm of the supernatural and the agenda of heaven.
4. Teach me how to live and operate in alignment with the supernatural ways of God.
5. Speak to me, Lord!

DAY 14: SUNDAY – “POSSESSING THE SUPERNATURAL”

Scripture for Meditation: Acts 19:2

Prayer:

1. Lord, FILL ME over and over again with the supernatural power of the Holy Spirit! I receive YOUR spirit to operate freely in my life that I may know you and supernaturally participate with you to do great exploits on the earth!
2. Pour out the Holy Spirit on all those who desire to receive you. Thank you that our families, cities, and nation, and world will be filled with the Holy Spirit.
3. May I always be aware of the power I possess in the Holy Spirit! Let me always remember that the same power that raised Jesus from the dead dwells in ME now!
4. Teach me more about the power that I possess in the Holy Ghost so I may demonstrate the same power and disciple others to know, love, obey, and follow you.
